

MRS. CHADWICK BREAKS DOWN UNDER STRAIN

Tears Her Handkerchief to Shreds Trying to Control Herself.

THEN SHE COLLAPSES.

Severe Arraignment of District Attorney in Charge to Jury Robs Her of Nerve.

DOCTOR CALLED TO HER.

Shows the Effect of Reverses in Court, and with Drawn Face Follows the Argument of Counsel.

(Special to The Evening World.)

CLEVELAND, March 10.—After having so far endured the strain of her trial with apparent equanimity, Mrs. Chadwick seems to be breaking down under the strain of the proceedings.

The first evidence of this was shown last evening just before court adjourned. At the time Assistant District Attorney Sullivan became caustic in his arraignment of the defense.

Marked heightening of color was apparent in her cheeks when at least the scolding arraignment of the District Attorney was finished. And when the court ordered the adjournment of the day's session she breathed an audible sigh of relief and hurried away through a private door into the judge's room.

From there she emerged later heavily veiled and entering an awaiting carriage was driven rapidly to the fall.

Arriving there Mrs. Chadwick seemed to lose the nerve which has so far characterized her. Having gained the seclusion of her cell she is said to have utterly collapsed. She was attended by the jail physician, and the effects of her mental and physical condition were plainly visible when she entered the court this morning.

As the trial was resumed to-day the questions regarding the ruling out of the sixth, seventh, eighth and fourteenth counts of the indictment were again brought before the court.

The attorneys for the defense and the government entered into a technical argument as to the admissibility of the evidence and these were allowed with the jury present.

District Attorney Sullivan attempted to justify the terms of the indictment in regard to conspiracy by reading several definitions of the crime and disavowing on the true meaning of intent.

Leaves Illegal.

Thomas H. Garry, Assistant District Attorney, presented the case to the jury. His argument was a statement of the bank's transactions, and did not become vehement until he touched upon the amount of the Chadwick loans from the Oberlin Bank.

In a voice of thunder Mr. Garry shouted to the jury that the officers of the bank had loaned Mrs. Chadwick thirty times as much as they were legally allowed to loan any or all of their customers.

He further intimated that the Chadwick transactions had been fraudulently withheld even from the directors of the bank.

Mr. Garry then read notes aggregating more than $100,000 signed by Cassie L. Chadwick.

He alleged that the bank records showed that even while these were unadmitted the Oberlin Bank officials advanced $50,000 more to the defendant without proper security.

The ambiguous letters to President Beckwith and Cashier Spear from Mrs. Chadwick, regarding heavy loans, were read to the jury after strenuous legal sparring between the attorneys. The prosecution made a point of the fact that the letters said that the check "would be good," and "not were good," and that Mrs. Chadwick said "yes" and "no" to the would "say" well for the favor.

The Chadwick case will be given to the jury some time to-morrow. It has not been the custom of the Federal Court to hold regular sessions on Saturday, but Judge Belmont has decided to-day he would hold court for it on Saturday.

At the trial was resumed to-day the questions regarding the ruling out of the sixth, seventh, eighth and fourteenth counts of the indictment were again brought before the court.

The attorneys for the defense and the government entered into a technical argument as to the admissibility of the evidence and these were allowed with the jury present.

District Attorney Sullivan attempted to justify the terms of the indictment in regard to conspiracy by reading several definitions of the crime and disavowing on the true meaning of intent.

Leaves Illegal.

Thomas H. Garry, Assistant District Attorney, presented the case to the jury. His argument was a statement of the bank's transactions, and did not become vehement until he touched upon the amount of the Chadwick loans from the Oberlin Bank.

In a voice of thunder Mr. Garry shouted to the jury that the officers of the bank had loaned Mrs. Chadwick thirty times as much as they were legally allowed to loan any or all of their customers.

He further intimated that the Chadwick transactions had been fraudulently withheld even from the directors of the bank.

Mr. Garry then read notes aggregating more than $100,000 signed by Cassie L. Chadwick.

He alleged that the bank records showed that even while these were unadmitted the Oberlin Bank officials advanced $50,000 more to the defendant without proper security.

The ambiguous letters to President Beckwith and Cashier Spear from Mrs. Chadwick, regarding heavy loans, were read to the jury after strenuous legal sparring between the attorneys. The prosecution made a point of the fact that the letters said that the check "would be good," and "not were good," and that Mrs. Chadwick said "yes" and "no" to the would "say" well for the favor.

The Chadwick case will be given to the jury some time to-morrow. It has not been the custom of the Federal Court to hold regular sessions on Saturday, but Judge Belmont has decided to-day he would hold court for it on Saturday.

At the trial was resumed to-day the questions regarding the ruling out of the sixth, seventh, eighth and fourteenth counts of the indictment were again brought before the court.

The attorneys for the defense and the government entered into a technical argument as to the admissibility of the evidence and these were allowed with the jury present.

District Attorney Sullivan attempted to justify the terms of the indictment in regard to conspiracy by reading several definitions of the crime and disavowing on the true meaning of intent.

Leaves Illegal.

Thomas H. Garry, Assistant District Attorney, presented the case to the jury. His argument was a statement of the bank's transactions, and did not become vehement until he touched upon the amount of the Chadwick loans from the Oberlin Bank.

In a voice of thunder Mr. Garry shouted to the jury that the officers of the bank had loaned Mrs. Chadwick thirty times as much as they were legally allowed to loan any or all of their customers.

He further intimated that the Chadwick transactions had been fraudulently withheld even from the directors of the bank.

Mr. Garry then read notes aggregating more than $100,000 signed by Cassie L. Chadwick.

He alleged that the bank records showed that even while these were unadmitted the Oberlin Bank officials advanced $50,000 more to the defendant without proper security.

The ambiguous letters to President Beckwith and Cashier Spear from Mrs. Chadwick, regarding heavy loans, were read to the jury after strenuous legal sparring between the attorneys. The prosecution made a point of the fact that the letters said that the check "would be good," and "not were good," and that Mrs. Chadwick said "yes" and "no" to the would "say" well for the favor.

The Chadwick case will be given to the jury some time to-morrow. It has not been the custom of the Federal Court to hold regular sessions on Saturday, but Judge Belmont has decided to-day he would hold court for it on Saturday.

At the trial was resumed to-day the questions regarding the ruling out of the sixth, seventh, eighth and fourteenth counts of the indictment were again brought before the court.

The attorneys for the defense and the government entered into a technical argument as to the admissibility of the evidence and these were allowed with the jury present.

District Attorney Sullivan attempted to justify the terms of the indictment in regard to conspiracy by reading several definitions of the crime and disavowing on the true meaning of intent.

Leaves Illegal.

Thomas H. Garry, Assistant District Attorney, presented the case to the jury. His argument was a statement of the bank's transactions, and did not become vehement until he touched upon the amount of the Chadwick loans from the Oberlin Bank.

In a voice of thunder Mr. Garry shouted to the jury that the officers of the bank had loaned Mrs. Chadwick thirty times as much as they were legally allowed to loan any or all of their customers.

He further intimated that the Chadwick transactions had been fraudulently withheld even from the directors of the bank.

Mr. Garry then read notes aggregating more than $100,000 signed by Cassie L. Chadwick.

He alleged that the bank records showed that even while these were unadmitted the Oberlin Bank officials advanced $50,000 more to the defendant without proper security.

The ambiguous letters to President Beckwith and Cashier Spear from Mrs. Chadwick, regarding heavy loans, were read to the jury after strenuous legal sparring between the attorneys. The prosecution made a point of the fact that the letters said that the check "would be good," and "not were good," and that Mrs. Chadwick said "yes" and "no" to the would "say" well for the favor.

The Chadwick case will be given to the jury some time to-morrow. It has not been the custom of the Federal Court to hold regular sessions on Saturday, but Judge Belmont has decided to-day he would hold court for it on Saturday.

At the trial was resumed to-day the questions regarding the ruling out of the sixth, seventh, eighth and fourteenth counts of the indictment were again brought before the court.

The attorneys for the defense and the government entered into a technical argument as to the admissibility of the evidence and these were allowed with the jury present.

District Attorney Sullivan attempted to justify the terms of the indictment in regard to conspiracy by reading several definitions of the crime and disavowing on the true meaning of intent.

Leaves Illegal.

Thomas H. Garry, Assistant District Attorney, presented the case to the jury. His argument was a statement of the bank's transactions, and did not become vehement until he touched upon the amount of the Chadwick loans from the Oberlin Bank.

In a voice of thunder Mr. Garry shouted to the jury that the officers of the bank had loaned Mrs. Chadwick thirty times as much as they were legally allowed to loan any or all of their customers.

He further intimated that the Chadwick transactions had been fraudulently withheld even from the directors of the bank.

Mr. Garry then read notes aggregating more than $100,000 signed by Cassie L. Chadwick.

He alleged that the bank records showed that even while these were unadmitted the Oberlin Bank officials advanced $50,000 more to the defendant without proper security.

The ambiguous letters to President Beckwith and Cashier Spear from Mrs. Chadwick, regarding heavy loans, were read to the jury after strenuous legal sparring between the attorneys. The prosecution made a point of the fact that the letters said that the check "would be good," and "not were good," and that Mrs. Chadwick said "yes" and "no" to the would "say" well for the favor.

The Chadwick case will be given to the jury some time to-morrow. It has not been the custom of the Federal Court to hold regular sessions on Saturday, but Judge Belmont has decided to-day he would hold court for it on Saturday.

At the trial was resumed to-day the questions regarding the ruling out of the sixth, seventh, eighth and fourteenth counts of the indictment were again brought before the court.

The attorneys for the defense and the government entered into a technical argument as to the admissibility of the evidence and these were allowed with the jury present.

District Attorney Sullivan attempted to justify the terms of the indictment in regard to conspiracy by reading several definitions of the crime and disavowing on the true meaning of intent.

Leaves Illegal.

Thomas H. Garry, Assistant District Attorney, presented the case to the jury. His argument was a statement of the bank's transactions, and did not become vehement until he touched upon the amount of the Chadwick loans from the Oberlin Bank.

In a voice of thunder Mr. Garry shouted to the jury that the officers of the bank had loaned Mrs. Chadwick thirty times as much as they were legally allowed to loan any or all of their customers.

He further intimated that the Chadwick transactions had been fraudulently withheld even from the directors of the bank.

Mr. Garry then read notes aggregating more than $100,000 signed by Cassie L. Chadwick.

He alleged that the bank records showed that even while these were unadmitted the Oberlin Bank officials advanced $50,000 more to the defendant without proper security.

The ambiguous letters to President Beckwith and Cashier Spear from Mrs. Chadwick, regarding heavy loans, were read to the jury after strenuous legal sparring between the attorneys. The prosecution made a point of the fact that the letters said that the check "would be good," and "not were good," and that Mrs. Chadwick said "yes" and "no" to the would "say" well for the favor.

The Chadwick case will be given to the jury some time to-morrow. It has not been the custom of the Federal Court to hold regular sessions on Saturday, but Judge Belmont has decided to-day he would hold court for it on Saturday.

At the trial was resumed to-day the questions regarding the ruling out of the sixth, seventh, eighth and fourteenth counts of the indictment were again brought before the court.

The attorneys for the defense and the government entered into a technical argument as to the admissibility of the evidence and these were allowed with the jury present.

District Attorney Sullivan attempted to justify the terms of the indictment in regard to conspiracy by reading several definitions of the crime and disavowing on the true meaning of intent.

Leaves Illegal.

Thomas H. Garry, Assistant District Attorney, presented the case to the jury. His argument was a statement of the bank's transactions, and did not become vehement until he touched upon the amount of the Chadwick loans from the Oberlin Bank.

In a voice of thunder Mr. Garry shouted to the jury that the officers of the bank had loaned Mrs. Chadwick thirty times as much as they were legally allowed to loan any or all of their customers.

He further intimated that the Chadwick transactions had been fraudulently withheld even from the directors of the bank.

Mr. Garry then read notes aggregating more than $100,000 signed by Cassie L. Chadwick.

He alleged that the bank records showed that even while these were unadmitted the Oberlin Bank officials advanced $50,000 more to the defendant without proper security.

The ambiguous letters to President Beckwith and Cashier Spear from Mrs. Chadwick, regarding heavy loans, were read to the jury after strenuous legal sparring between the attorneys. The prosecution made a point of the fact that the letters said that the check "would be good," and "not were good," and that Mrs. Chadwick said "yes" and "no" to the would "say" well for the favor.

The Chadwick case will be given to the jury some time to-morrow. It has not been the custom of the Federal Court to hold regular sessions on Saturday, but Judge Belmont has decided to-day he would hold court for it on Saturday.

At the trial was resumed to-day the questions regarding the ruling out of the sixth, seventh, eighth and fourteenth counts of the indictment were again brought before the court.

The attorneys for the defense and the government entered into a technical argument as to the admissibility of the evidence and these were allowed with the jury present.

District Attorney Sullivan attempted to justify the terms of the indictment in regard to conspiracy by reading several definitions of the crime and disavowing on the true meaning of intent.

Leaves Illegal.

Thomas H. Garry, Assistant District Attorney, presented the case to the jury. His argument was a statement of the bank's transactions, and did not become vehement until he touched upon the amount of the Chadwick loans from the Oberlin Bank.

In a voice of thunder Mr. Garry shouted to the jury that the officers of the bank had loaned Mrs. Chadwick thirty times as much as they were legally allowed to loan any or all of their customers.

He further intimated that the Chadwick transactions had been fraudulently withheld even from the directors of the bank.

Mr. Garry then read notes aggregating more than $100,000 signed by Cassie L. Chadwick.

He alleged that the bank records showed that even while these were unadmitted the Oberlin Bank officials advanced $50,000 more to the defendant without proper security.

The ambiguous letters to President Beckwith and Cashier Spear from Mrs. Chadwick, regarding heavy loans, were read to the jury after strenuous legal sparring between the attorneys. The prosecution made a point of the fact that the letters said that the check "would be good," and "not were good," and that Mrs. Chadwick said "yes" and "no" to the would "say" well for the favor.

The Chadwick case will be given to the jury some time to-morrow. It has not been the custom of the Federal Court to hold regular sessions on Saturday, but Judge Belmont has decided to-day he would hold court for it on Saturday.

At the trial was resumed to-day the questions regarding the ruling out of the sixth, seventh, eighth and fourteenth counts of the indictment were again brought before the court.

The attorneys for the defense and the government entered into a technical argument as to the admissibility of the evidence and these were allowed with the jury present.

District Attorney Sullivan attempted to justify the terms of the indictment in regard to conspiracy by reading several definitions of the crime and disavowing on the true meaning of intent.

Leaves Illegal.

Thomas H. Garry, Assistant District Attorney, presented the case to the jury. His argument was a statement of the bank's transactions, and did not become vehement until he touched upon the amount of the Chadwick loans from the Oberlin Bank.

In a voice of thunder Mr. Garry shouted to the jury that the officers of the bank had loaned Mrs. Chadwick thirty times as much as they were legally allowed to loan any or all of their customers.

He further intimated that the Chadwick transactions had been fraudulently withheld even from the directors of the bank.

Mr. Garry then read notes aggregating more than $100,000 signed by Cassie L. Chadwick.

He alleged that the bank records showed that even while these were unadmitted the Oberlin Bank officials advanced $50,000 more to the defendant without proper security.

The ambiguous letters to President Beckwith and Cashier Spear from Mrs. Chadwick, regarding heavy loans, were read to the jury after strenuous legal sparring between the attorneys. The prosecution made a point of the fact that the letters said that the check "would be good," and "not were good," and that Mrs. Chadwick said "yes" and "no" to the would "say" well for the favor.

The Chadwick case will be given to the jury some time to-morrow. It has not been the custom of the Federal Court to hold regular sessions on Saturday, but Judge Belmont has decided to-day he would hold court for it on Saturday.

At the trial was resumed to-day the questions regarding the ruling out of the sixth, seventh, eighth and fourteenth counts of the indictment were again brought before the court.

The attorneys for the defense and the government entered into a technical argument as to the admissibility of the evidence and these were allowed with the jury present.

District Attorney Sullivan attempted to justify the terms of the indictment in regard to conspiracy by reading several definitions of the crime and disavowing on the true meaning of intent.

Leaves Illegal.

Thomas H. Garry, Assistant District Attorney, presented the case to the jury. His argument was a statement of the bank's transactions, and did not become vehement until he touched upon the amount of the Chadwick loans from the Oberlin Bank.

In a voice of thunder Mr. Garry shouted to the jury that the officers of the bank had loaned Mrs. Chadwick thirty times as much as they were legally allowed to loan any or all of their customers.

He further intimated that the Chadwick transactions had been fraudulently withheld even from the directors of the bank.

Mr. Garry then read notes aggregating more than $100,000 signed by Cassie L. Chadwick.

He alleged that the bank records showed that even while these were unadmitted the Oberlin Bank officials advanced $50,000 more to the defendant without proper security.

The ambiguous letters to President Beckwith and Cashier Spear from Mrs. Chadwick, regarding heavy loans, were read to the jury after strenuous legal sparring between the attorneys. The prosecution made a point of the fact that the letters said that the check "would be good," and "not were good," and that Mrs. Chadwick said "yes" and "no" to the would "say" well for the favor.

The Chadwick case will be given to the jury some time to-morrow. It has not been the custom of the Federal Court to hold regular sessions on Saturday, but Judge Belmont has decided to-day he would hold court for it on Saturday.

At the trial was resumed to-day the questions regarding the ruling out of the sixth, seventh, eighth and fourteenth counts of the indictment were again brought before the court.

The attorneys for the defense and the government entered into a technical argument as to the admissibility of the evidence and these were allowed with the jury present.

District Attorney Sullivan attempted to justify the terms of the indictment in regard to conspiracy by reading several definitions of the crime and disavowing on the true meaning of intent.

Leaves Illegal.

Thomas H. Garry, Assistant District Attorney, presented the case to the jury. His argument was a statement of the bank's transactions, and did not become vehement until he touched upon the amount of the Chadwick loans from the Oberlin Bank.

In a voice of thunder Mr. Garry shouted to the jury that the officers of the bank had loaned Mrs. Chadwick thirty times as much as they were legally allowed to loan any or all of their customers.

He further intimated that the Chadwick transactions had been fraudulently withheld even from the directors of the bank.

Mr. Garry then read notes aggregating more than $100,000 signed by Cassie L. Chadwick.

He alleged that the bank records showed that even while these were unadmitted the Oberlin Bank officials advanced $50,000 more to the defendant without proper security.

The ambiguous letters to President Beckwith and Cashier Spear from Mrs. Chadwick, regarding heavy loans, were read to the jury after strenuous legal sparring between the attorneys. The prosecution made a point of the fact that the letters said that the check "would be good," and "not were good," and that Mrs. Chadwick said "yes" and "no" to the would "say" well for the favor.

The Chadwick case will be given to the jury some time to-morrow. It has not been the custom of the Federal Court to hold regular sessions on Saturday, but Judge Belmont has decided to-day he would hold court for it on Saturday.

LATEST FAD FOR PUPILS IS TO GET IN THE SWIM

Mr. Rosenstein's Bill Provides for a Pool and Competent Instructor in Art Natatorial in Each Public School of the City.

"Mother, may I go out to swim?" "Why, yes, it's time for school." "Hurry, your clothes are on a fireproof limb and dive into the pool!" "Old Vers Revived."

The problem of how to keep boys from playing hooky from school and going swimming is solved, if the Legislature passes the bill introduced by Assemblyman Rosenstein. The bill provides for nothing less startling than the establishing of swimming pools in all the public schools of New York City, with competent instructors on hand to teach the young idea how to swim.

"Mother, may I go out to swim?" "Why, yes, it's time for school." "Hurry, your clothes are on a fireproof limb and dive into the pool!" "Old Vers Revived."

The problem of how to keep boys from playing hooky from school and going swimming is solved, if the Legislature passes the bill introduced by Assemblyman Rosenstein. The bill provides for nothing less startling than the establishing of swimming pools in all the public schools of New York City, with competent instructors on hand to teach the young idea how to swim.

"Mother, may I go out to swim?" "Why, yes, it's time for school." "Hurry, your clothes are on a fireproof limb and dive into the pool!" "Old Vers Revived."

The problem of how to keep boys from playing hooky from school and going swimming is solved, if the Legislature passes the bill introduced by Assemblyman Rosenstein. The bill provides for nothing less startling than the establishing of swimming pools in all the public schools of New York City, with competent instructors on hand to teach the young idea how to swim.

"Mother, may I go out to swim?" "Why, yes, it's time for school." "Hurry, your clothes are on a fireproof limb and dive into the pool!" "Old Vers Revived."

The problem of how to keep boys from playing hooky from school and going swimming is solved, if the Legislature passes the bill introduced by Assemblyman Rosenstein. The bill provides for nothing less startling than the establishing of swimming pools in all the public schools of New York City, with competent instructors on hand to teach the young idea how to swim.

"Mother, may I go out to swim?" "Why, yes, it's time for school." "Hurry, your clothes are on a fireproof limb and dive into the pool!" "Old Vers Revived."

The problem of how to keep boys from playing hooky from school and going swimming is solved, if the Legislature passes the bill introduced by Assemblyman Rosenstein. The bill provides for nothing less startling than the establishing of swimming pools in all the public schools of New York City, with competent instructors on hand to teach the young idea how to swim.

"Mother, may I go out to swim?" "Why, yes, it's time for school." "Hurry, your clothes are on a fireproof limb and dive into the pool!" "Old Vers Revived."

The problem of how to keep boys from playing hooky from school and going swimming is solved, if the Legislature passes the bill introduced by Assemblyman Rosenstein. The bill provides for nothing less startling than the establishing of swimming pools in all the public schools of New York City, with competent instructors on hand to teach the young idea how to swim.

"Mother, may I go out to swim?" "Why, yes, it's time for school." "Hurry, your clothes are on a fireproof limb and dive into the pool!" "Old Vers Revived."

The problem of how to keep boys from playing hooky from school and going swimming is solved, if the Legislature passes the bill introduced by Assemblyman Rosenstein. The bill provides for nothing less startling than the establishing of swimming pools in all the public schools of New York City, with competent instructors on hand to teach the young idea how to swim.

"Mother, may I go out to swim?" "Why, yes, it's time for school." "Hurry, your clothes are on a fireproof limb and dive into the pool!" "Old Vers Revived."

The problem of how to keep boys from playing hooky from school and going swimming is solved, if the Legislature passes the bill introduced by Assemblyman Rosenstein. The bill provides for nothing less startling than the establishing of swimming pools in all the public schools of New York City, with competent instructors on hand to teach the young idea how to swim.

"Mother, may I go out to swim?" "Why, yes, it's time for school." "Hurry, your clothes are on a fireproof limb and dive into the pool!" "Old Vers Revived."

The problem of how to keep boys from playing hooky from school and going swimming is solved, if the Legislature passes the bill introduced by Assemblyman Rosenstein. The bill provides for nothing less startling than the establishing of swimming pools in all the public schools of New York City, with competent instructors on hand to teach the young idea how to swim.

"Mother, may I go out to swim?" "Why, yes, it's time for school." "Hurry, your clothes are on a fireproof limb and dive into the pool!" "Old Vers Revived."

The problem of how to keep boys from playing hooky from school and going swimming is solved, if the Legislature passes the bill introduced by Assemblyman Rosenstein. The bill provides for nothing less startling than the establishing of swimming pools in all the public schools of New York City, with competent instructors on hand to teach the young idea how to swim.

"Mother, may I go out to swim?" "Why, yes, it's time for school." "Hurry, your clothes are on a fireproof limb and dive into the pool!" "Old Vers Revived."

The problem of how to keep boys from playing hooky from school and going swimming is solved, if the Legislature passes the bill introduced by Assemblyman Rosenstein. The bill provides for nothing less startling than the establishing of swimming pools in all the public schools of New York City, with competent instructors on hand to teach the young idea how to swim.

"Mother, may I go out to swim?" "Why, yes, it's time for school." "Hurry, your clothes are on a fireproof limb and dive into the pool!" "Old Vers Revived."

The problem of how to keep boys from playing hooky from school and going swimming is solved, if the Legislature passes the bill introduced by Assemblyman Rosenstein. The bill provides for nothing less startling than the establishing of swimming pools in all the public schools of New York City, with competent instructors on hand to teach the young idea how to swim.

"Mother, may I go out to swim?" "Why, yes, it's time for school." "Hurry, your clothes are on a fireproof limb and dive into the pool!" "Old Vers Revived."

The problem of how to keep boys from playing hooky from school and going swimming is solved, if the Legislature passes the bill introduced by Assemblyman Rosenstein. The bill provides for nothing less startling than the establishing of swimming pools in all the public schools of New York City, with competent instructors on hand to teach the young idea how to swim.

CUT IN HELLO RATES IS NEAR

Reduction of 20 Per Cent. for All Classes of Service Said to Have Been Decided On—Will Stop Legislation.

It was stated on the highest authority to-day that the New York Telephone Company is to reduce its rates on all classes of service 20 per cent. Just when the new rates are to go into effect could not be learned this afternoon, as both President and general manager declined to discuss it.

If a reduction is made it may result in the dropping of the bills now before the Legislature providing for an investigation into telephone rates and a general reduction of rates.

TO STOP BLACKMAIL OF POOR

Two Legislative Bills Aimed at Bogus Warrant-Server. (Special to The Evening World.) ALBANY, March 10.—Two bills to put an end to dispossession proceedings for the purpose of blackmailing poor people in the tenement-house districts have been introduced by Assemblyman Prentice.

The measures provide that a precept or warrant can be served only by a marshal or a person deputized by a marshal for that particular case. Mayor McClellan is said to favor them.

Save Time

Order your supplies
Run your errands
Do your shopping
Make appointments
By Telephone
Manhattan Residence
Rates at $4 per Month
Call Central Dept. 8019 Ext.
NEW YORK TELEPHONE CO.
15 Day Street.

Backache, "The Blues"

Both Symptoms of Organic Derangement in Women—Thousands of Sufferers Find Relief.

Mrs. J. G. Holmes Emma Cotrelly

How often do we hear women say: "It seems as though my back would break," or "Don't speak to me, I am all out of sorts?" These significant remarks prove that the system requires attention.

Backache and "the blues" are direct symptoms of an inward trouble which will sooner or later declare itself. It may be caused by diseased kidneys or some uterine derangement, and at once, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound instantly asserts its curative powers in all those peculiar ailments of women. It has been the standby of intelligent American women for twenty years, and the ablest specialists agree that it is the most diversely successful remedy for women's ills known to medicine.

The following letters from Mrs. Holmes and Mrs. Cotrelly are among the many thousands which Mrs. Pinkham has received this year from those whom she has relieved.

Surely such testimony is convincing.

Mrs. J. C. Holmes, of Larimore, North Dakota, writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I have suffered everything with backache and womb trouble—I let the trouble run on my system was in such a condition that I was unable to be about, and it was I commenced to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I had only known how much suffering I would have saved. I should have taken it months sooner—for a few weeks' treatment made me well and strong. My backache and headaches are all gone and I suffer no pain at my menstrual periods, whereas before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I suffered intense pain."

Mrs. Emma Cotrelly, 109 East 12th Street, New York City, writes:

Ask Mrs. Pinkham's Advice—A Woman Best Understands a Woman's ills.

FOR SALE. FOR SALE.

J. MORRIS

WE EXTEND CREDIT TO ALL.

3 Rooms Completely 49.98 4 Rooms Completely 74.98 5 Rooms Completely 124.98

Folding Cots 1.85 Iron Sliding Couch Bed 2.74

267 WEST 125

W. L. DOUGLAS

UNION MADE $3.50 SHOES FOR MEN

You Don't Need to Pay High Prices for Shoes Any Longer.

W. L. Douglas makes and sells more men's $3.50 shoes than any other manufacturer in the world.

The reason W. L. Douglas $3.50 shoes are the greatest sellers in the world is because of their excellent style, easy fitting and superior wearing qualities. If I could show you the difference between the shoes made in my factory and those of other makes and the high grade leathers used, you would understand why W. L. Douglas $3.50 shoes cost more to make, why they hold their shape, fit better, wear longer, and are of greater intrinsic value than any other $3.50 shoe on the market to-day. W. L. Douglas guarantees their value by stamping his name and price on the bottom. Look for it. Sold by all shoe dealers.

Take no substitute.

AS GOOD AS $7.00 TO $8.00 CUSTOM SHOES.

"I have worn the W. L. Douglas $3.50 shoe for the past twelve years. Find them to be just as comfortable, more stylish, and wear just as long as custom made shoes that cost me $7 to $8."

MARTIN KELLY, Retired Engineer, N. Y. Fire Dept., 105 E. 11th Street, N. Y. City.

W. L. Douglas $2.00 and $1.75 Shoes for Boys are the same as Douglas $3.50 shoes for Men. Boys save $1 on every pair over other makes.

W. L. Douglas uses only the finest Patented Leather yet produced.

W. L. Douglas is Co. Write for New Illustrated Catalog. Shoes by mail, 25 cents extra.

W. L. DOUGLAS, BROOKLYN, N. Y.

W. L. Douglas $3.50 Shoe Stores in Greater New York:

433 Broadway, corner Howard Street.
753 Broadway, corner 11th Street.
833 Broadway, corner 14th Street.
1349 Broadway, corner 34th Street.
1447-1460 Broadway, corner 41st Street.
95 Nassau Street.
850 West 125th Street.
974 Third Avenue.
2228 Third Avenue, corner 125th Street.
777 Third Ave., bet. 145th and 147th Streets.

BROOKLYN:
350 Eighth Avenue, corner 2nd Street.
707-710 Broadway, corner Thornton Street.
1207 Broadway, corner Gates Avenue.
411 Fulton Street, corner Pearl Street.
494 Fifth Avenue.
JERSEY CITY—18 Newark Avenue.
NEWARK—785 Broad Street.

FOR SALE. FOR SALE.

Big Special Advantages

Men's Spring Tailoring. $15

JUST ARRIVED—A great line of fabrics for Spring wear. To give the season a brisk start we make a great special offer of Suits, Topcoats and Cravensette Rain Coats, best trimmings throughout and correctly tailored. TO MEASURE, for It's Worth Your While to Examine This Offer.

ALBURY & CO. Cash or Credit.
18-20 Astor Place, Corner Lafayette.

CLOTHING ON CREDIT

OVERCOATS and Suits for Men and Boys. LADIES' SUITS, JACKETS and FURS on weekly and monthly payments. CASH OR CREDIT. STANDARD OUTFITTING CO., 112 WEST 14TH ST.

CASH OR CREDIT.

No Employer's references required. Call or write for illustrated catalogue. L. W. SWEET & CO., 57-59 MAIDEN LANE, New York. 3075 THIRD AV.

407 FULTON ST., BROOKLYN. 110 NEWARK AV., JERSEY CITY. Out-of-Town Patronage Solicited. Twenty Years in Business.

NEW CREDIT IDEA.

The idea is we sell CLOTHING ON CREDIT for men and women. At Strictly Cash Prices, 6TH AVE. CREDIT HOUSE, Insurance policy free with every purchase. 223 6th Ave. Bet. 14th and 15th Sts. 1 FLOOR UP. OPEN EVENINGS.

DOLLAR DOWN, dollar weekly; beautiful genuine diamond ring, $15. Majestic Jewelry Co., 80 Nassau.

WATCHES, diamonds, on weekly payments. Diamond, 455 A. M. weekdays and 425 P. M. SUNDAY. 22 MAIDEN LANE.

RAILROADS.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

STATIONS FOOT OF WEST TWENTY THIRD STREET AND DESBORGHES AND CURTIS STREETS.

The leaving time from Desborghes and Curtiss Street is five minutes later than the time shown on the Pennsylvania Railroad Station.

FOR THE WEEK.

7:35 A. M.—CHICAGO SPECIAL.
7:45 A. M.—CHICAGO & LAKE ERIE EXP.
10:35 A. M.—THE PENNSYLVANIA LIMITED, 25 hours to Chicago.
1:45 P. M.—CHICAGO LIMITED.
3:35 P. M.—CHICAGO & LAKE ERIE EXP.
5:35 P. M.—WESTERN EXPRESS.
8:35 P. M.—PACIFIC EXPRESS.

7:35 P. M.—PITTSBURGH SPECIAL.
WASHINGTON AND THE SOUTH.
7:35 A. M.—WASHINGTON & THE SOUTH.
7:45 A. M.—WASHINGTON & THE SOUTH.
10:35 A. M.—WASHINGTON & THE SOUTH.
1:45 P. M.—WASHINGTON & THE SOUTH.
3:35 P. M.—WASHINGTON & THE SOUTH.
5:35 P. M.—WASHINGTON & THE SOUTH.
8:35 P. M.—WASHINGTON & THE SOUTH.

FOR THE WEEK.

7:35 A. M.—CHICAGO SPECIAL.
7:45 A. M.—CHICAGO & LAKE ERIE EXP.
10:35 A. M.—THE PENNSYLVANIA LIMITED, 25 hours to Chicago.
1:45 P. M.—CHICAGO LIMITED.
3:35 P. M.—CHICAGO & LAKE ERIE EXP.
5:35 P. M.—WESTERN EXPRESS.
8:35 P. M.—PACIFIC EXPRESS.

7:35 P. M.—PITTSBURGH SPECIAL.
WASHINGTON AND THE SOUTH.
7:35 A. M.—WASHINGTON & THE SOUTH.
7:45 A. M.—WASHINGTON & THE SOUTH.
10:35 A. M.—WASHINGTON & THE SOUTH.
1:45 P. M.—WASHINGTON & THE SOUTH.
3:35 P. M.—WASHINGTON & THE SOUTH.
5:35 P. M.—WASHINGTON & THE SOUTH.
8:35 P. M.—WASHINGTON & THE SOUTH.

FOR THE WEEK.

7:35 A. M.—CHICAGO SPECIAL.
7:45 A. M.—CHICAGO & LAKE ERIE EXP.
10:35 A. M.—THE PENNSYLVANIA LIMITED, 25 hours to Chicago.
1:45 P. M.—CHICAGO LIMITED.
3:35 P. M.—CHICAGO & LAKE ERIE EXP.
5:35 P. M.—WESTERN EXPRESS.
8:35 P. M.—PACIFIC EXPRESS.

7:35 P. M.—PITTSBURGH SPECIAL.
WASHINGTON AND THE SOUTH.
7:35 A. M.—WASHINGTON & THE SOUTH.
7:45 A. M.—WASHINGTON & THE SOUTH.
10:35 A. M.—WASHINGTON & THE SOUTH.
1:45 P. M.—WASHINGTON & THE SOUTH.
3:35 P. M.—WASHINGTON & THE SOUTH.
5:35 P. M.—WASHINGTON & THE SOUTH.
8:35 P. M.—WASHINGTON & THE SOUTH.

FOR THE WEEK.

7:35 A. M.—CHICAGO SPECIAL.
7:45 A. M.—CHICAGO & LAKE ERIE EXP.
10:35 A. M.—THE PENNSYLVANIA LIMITED, 25 hours to Chicago.
1:45 P. M.—CHICAGO LIMITED.
3:35 P. M.—CHICAGO &amp